

Greetings Bodo,

Congratulations! As you know, each year, FlipKey and TripAdvisor have the privilege of recognizing our leading vacation rental managers – clients who go above and beyond in the vacation rental industry. Now, for two years running -- based on the superb reviews of your past guests -- we are recognizing Cape Coral Vacation Rentals as one of those excellent companies.

We are proud to have such high-quality management companies represented on FlipKey and TripAdvisor. To show our appreciation, we are presenting Cape Coral Vacation Rentals with this TripAdvisor "Rated Excellent" award for 2012.

Perhaps you have seen similar decals in the windows of restaurants or attractions that come highly recommended on TripAdvisor. In the same way, we again welcome you to display this award in your office. Your commitment to providing outstanding service is something everyone should know.

As always, it's a pleasure working with you to highlight your rentals and guest services on both FlipKey and TripAdvisor. I look forward to continuing to help educate travelers about your great listings and to bring more bookings to your rental properties in 2012.

Again, congratulations, and thank you for using FlipKey.
